Location - The Bristol Conference Centre is readily accessible from Bristol City Centre which is just 4 miles and from the M5, Junction 18 which is only ¾ mile away. The new Second Severn Crossing accesses this junction via the M49.

Train station: Bristol Temple Meads. Taxi from this station is approximately 20 mins.

From the motorway M5: SOUTHBOUND; Junction 18. NORTHBOUND; Junction 18. Follow briefly directions for Avonmouth. Then follow directions into SHIREHAMPTON. You will arrive on the Lower High Street. Go straight on past the "Hope and Anchor" on your right, and 300 yards past the traffic lights look for a concealed entrance in a high wall on the left with the sign "The Wylands" Bristol Conference Centre. The car park is at the back of the Conference Centre.

From Wales: Access the M5 from either the Second Severn Crossing (M49) or the Severn Bridge and then follow the above instructions for the M5 SOUTHBOUND at Junction 18. The car park is at the back of the Conference Centre.

From Bristol City Centre: Take the Portway along the river Avon. Follow signpost to the right into Shirehampton. At the end of Park Road turn slightly left and continue straight on passing the "George Inn" on the High Street towards Avonmouth. Pass the TEXACO petrol station on your left. Where the road starts going down, look for a concealed entrance in a high wall on the right with the sign "The Wylands" Bristol Conference Centre. The car park is at the back of the Conference Centre.
